Italian Review of Territorial Sciences

| MISSION | TOOLS | FIGURES | GOALS |

Scienze del Territorio is the online journal of the Territorialist Society.

The journal hosts pioneering studies pointed at enhancing territorial heritage, bringing back together the diverse meanings of places, frequently divided by confined institutional sciences and practices, and proposing transformation projects based on these guidelines.

As an identity code of its scientific method and action, the journal promotes forms of meeting and mediation among theoretical thought, technical and local knowledge.
