

Programme for the GHC Summer School 2015

7-Sep. Mon.	9:00 - 9:45	Opening Ceremony Orientation/ Photo session
	10:00 -12:00	1st session: Colonial and Decolonial (moderator: Prof. Conrad) 1. Fabian Krautwald (Berlin): Colonialism, Revolution and the Scaling of History - The German Colonial Society 1918-19 2. Saki Nakano (EHESS): "Defining "Africa": the Pan-African Struggles of the Young Elites during the Decolonisation in West Africa (1945-1962)
		2nd Session: Shared Knowledge and Science (moderator: Prof. Adelman) 1. Emily Kern (Princeton): Evolution's Footprints: Transnational Science, Human Identity and the Emergence of Global Research Networks in Twentieth Century Biology 2. Emoto Hiroshi (Tokyo): The Reception History of John Ruskin: Towards a Global History of Modern Architectural Thought 3. Fukuhara Kotaro (Tokyo): Factors of the Development of Rice Farming in High Latitudes: Example of Northeastern Region of China.
	13:30 -16:30
8-Sep. Tue	9:00 - 12:00	3rd Session: Nation and Identity 1 (moderator: Prof. Eckert) 1. Fabian Steininger (Berlin), The Nation Forms. A Study of Conceptual Change in the Late Ottoman Empire 2. Sarah Abel (EHESS), Assessing the Social Limits of Genetic Identities: A Study of DNA 'Ancestry' Testing Practices in the US and Brazil 3. Kim Jiyeon (Tokyo): Overseas/ Foreign Travel Experience and Korea's Globalism in 1980s
9-Sep. Wed.	9:00 - 12:00	4th Session: Nation and Identity 2 (moderator: Prof. Sebastiani) 1. Karina Kriegesmann (Berlin): Dangerous Fears: Brazilian Media and the Emotionalization of the Public, 1917-1930. 2. Gabriela Goldin (EHESS): Collective Biography of Mexican Intellectuals Studied in Jesuit Institutions in the Eighteenth Century (tentative) 3. Terada Yuki (Tokyo): Global History through the Medium of Museums:The Establishment and Evolution of Museums in Iran.
		13:30 - 15:30	5th Session: Eurasia and East Asia (moderator: Prof. Chen) 1. Mandkhai Lkhagvasuren (Tokyo): Reexamination of Mongol Administration: the Case of Bitigchis 2. Cheng Yongchao (Tokyo): Role and Contribution of Joseon Embassies to Tokugawa Japan and Imperial China
	16:30 - 18:30	Global History Forum at Fukutake Hall
	19:00	Reception
10-Sep. Thu.	9:30 - 11:30	6th Session: Indian Ocean (moderator: Prof. Stanziani) 1. Leonald von Galen (Berlin): "(...) they were like kings" Indian Merchants in the Sultanate Zanzibar and Oman (1840-1856) 2. Katakura Shizuo (Tokyo): Institutional Changes of Major Port Cities in the Nineteenth-Century Western Indian Ocean: Overlapping Empires and Merchant Networks
	PM	Transfer to Sapporo
11-Sep. Fri	9:00 - 12:00	7th Session: Economy and Finance (moderator: Prof. Kuroda) 1. Andrea Tosato (EHESS): Public Debt and Private Credit in XVIII and XIX Century Britain 2. Andrew Edwards (Princeton): Sovereignty v. Commonwealth: Money and Empire from British North America. 3. Paula Vedoveli (Princeton): Institutions and Financial Networks in Riod de Janeiro and London in the Second Half of the 19th Century
		13:30 - 15:30	8th Session: Transnational (moderator: Prof. Garon) 1. Thomas Lindner (Berlin): Anti-Imperialism in Interwar Latin America: The Magazin El Libertador between Global Solidarity and Continental Unity 2. Marcia C. Schenck (Princeton): Scaling the Magerman: Transnational and Translocal Migrant Labor Networks from Mozambique to East Germany 1979-1992.
		Reception
12 Sep. Sat		Excursion to Noboribetsu 1. Hokkaido Museum 2. The Ainu Museum	